

There was a little kitten
Whose name was Emma Lou

She wouldn't share her toys
Which isn't nice to do

She gathered up her yarn
And heart made out of lace

And put her rubber mouse
In a very secret place

She played with all her friends' toys
But never shared her own

When they asked “Where are yours?”
She just said, “I don’t know.”

It isn't very nice
To be like Emma Lou

And if you do not share
No one will play with you